CIAO! continues to set the standard for interactive, flexible introductory Italian instruction with its state-of-the-art online technology package. Not only is this course entirely portable to accommodate the demands of a busy life, it features exciting new capabilities that allow students to share links, photos, and videos and to comment on those posted by their fellow classmates. The eighth edition is distinguished by several new resources and updates that promote the acquisition of Italian language and culture in accordance with the National Standards for Foreign Language Education. Communicative goals are established at the start of each chapter to provide students with clearly defined objectives as they work through the content, while skill-building strategies and interactive activities help them achieve those goals. The all-new Regioni d'Italia section establishes a thematic thread that is maintained throughout the chapter and provides plenty of opportunities to make cross-cultural comparisons even within the regions of Italy itself. CIAO!'S fully-updated authentic readings, cultural snapshots, videos, and activities engage students in deeper exploration of the vibrant life of modern-day Italy and the country's rich cultural heritage. Each chapter ends with a thorough Ripasso to ensure student success. Now more than ever, CIAO! provides an all-in-one grammar and vocabulary program that allows students to communicate in Italian with confidence and gives them a unique cultural perspective on an ever-changing Italy. Just east of Tuscany, Umbria is lush with rolling hills and rustic small towns - and delicious, healthful, traditional Italian cooking. In her most intimate and personal cookbook to date, popular cooking-show host Mary Ann Esposito, beloved for her long-running series "Ciao Italia," takes us through this delightful, unspoiled region - cooking, eating, and making friends along the way. With 60 authentic recipes along with anecdotes, profiles, and cooking tips, this companion to "Ciao Italia" is a "traveling cookbook" that transports us to the unforgettable foods of Umbria and the people who prepare them. You'll visit bustling food markets, glorious street festivals, aroma-filled home kitchens, family-run vineyards, top-secret truffle fields, and a heavenly chocolate museum. You'll also find information on mail-order sources, web sites, and Umbrian restaurants. Everyone who loves Italy will savor the bounty of Umbrian specialties on these pages, including hearty gnocchi, sizzling vegetables and pork sausages alla griglia (on the grill), delectable black truffles, simple ragus, healthful lentils and farro, hearty country breads, and Perugian chocolate desserts. So pull up a chair, pour a glass of Sangiovese, and come along to Umbria - and bring your appetite!

You'll sharpen your ear for spoken Italian, practice listening to and speaking Italian in real-life situations, and expand your understanding of Italian culture with this practical Italian workbook and lab manual. This 1880 work by Dr. M. La Fayette Byrn is the eighth edition of a hugely popular manual on the distillation of spirits from a variety of fruits and vegetables. Providing directions for the distillation and preparation of brandies and other spirits, this edition had appended to it M. Flinz's ""Practical Directions for Distilling,"" a text that had appeared separately in Paris and which the author felt would provide vital information to the reader.

Imperfect Tense is a meditation on language, and the poems in this collection are grounded in teaching, learning, and living between languages and cultures. Much like the imported "dragon fruit," these poems grasp displacement as opportunity; they relish in perpetual outsider-ness as a way inside a fundamentally shared human condition. The first section of three, "Imperfect Tense" is a specific meditation on Americans' pursuits of Spanish as a second language. "Past Tense" revolves around experiences as an English language and poetry teacher working with immigrant communities. Finally, "Ever Present Tense" is a meditation on the language of family.

From the Foreword by Jasper White, chef, restaurateur and author; "Fabulous recipes aside, this book is worth possessing just for the in depth dissertations Mary Ann gives on so many ingredients like olive oil, cheese, rice, lentils, pasta, pasta sauces, tomatoes, bread, artichokes, radicchio, prosciutto, mortadella, balsamic vinegar and other stars of Italian cuisine. She teaches the importance of each and their connections to particular regions, cities and villages with a knowledge that can only come from firsthand experience. Mary Ann tells fun stories of Saints and extraordinary people and their connections to particular customs, history, holidays, farming and techniques of food preparation. These delightful tales, like the one of her grandmother preparing elaborate dishes honoring St. Joseph for granting her wish of saving her husband's life, give us a deeper understanding of how food is so much more than fuel for the body. It is a celebration of love and of life. Mary Ann Esposito has spent her life cooking, traveling and teaching. The pages that follow are the culmination of her amazing career accomplishments, vast experience, intelligence, and most of all her connection to the food and the people she loves. Grazie, Mary Ann, for sharing your great adventure with us." "In Ciao Italia, her very personal gastronomic journey, Mary Ann reveals to us the extraordinary diversity and complexity of Italian cuisine and the importance of traditions, ingredients and regional cooking. Full of useful information and historical references, her lively story is told with the right touch of flair and confidence and reveals the soul of Italy." -Jacques Pépin, chef and author
