After many disappointments with Danielle Steel's books lately, the synopsis seemed interesting. Alas. This is far from ds at her best, when she was writing really good boooks. The last fairly acceptable one being "Sisters". "Honor Thyself" starts out with 50 year old world famous movie star Carole Barber, trying to write a semi-biographic book ...

"Honor Thyself" starts out with 50 year old world famous movie star Carole Barber, trying to write a semi-biographic book. A very sympathetic heroine, too perfect perhaps, but that is regular ds recipe. However, already the first 20-30 pages are so repetitive and downright boring that I only kept reading in the hope that it would all get better.
